Football career – Support and awards for players

Personal development. FPA of Finland provides special offers for members in the field of self-development. Through us you can get nutrition coaching. We also have physics coaching and screening with Kobe Bryant's ex-physics coach Marko Yrjövuori. You can also hire personal video coach analysing your football performance (Spanish Ekkono Method) an personal mental coach.

Out of contract. FPA of Finland maintains transfer list for players without a contract called "Pelaajapörssi". We are also gathering a team for players out of contract every winter during the offseason or preseason and offer opportunities for unemployed players to keep in fit and develop themselves.

Player awards. FPA of Finland is organizing the vote for the player of the month in the top leagues. We also facilitate the vote and award the best players of the season in different playing positions.

Dual career – Tools to combine football and other careers

Job4Player. FPA of Finland offers and opportunity to develop your professional curriculum outside football. We also try to help players to find jobs outside football.

Study4Player. We provide many opportunities to combine football career and studying. Through our cooperators you can find many opportunities to do flexible studies while you are playing. We offer for example Sport Management bachelor degree (FIFPro Online Academy) and sport instructor studies (Vierumäki).

Old Stars. FPA of Finland wants to help you to prepare for the life after football. We can help you to start saving and investing into sportsmens' pension funds. We also organize Old Stars tournaments where you can meet old friends.

Legal – Assistance and advice in legal matters

Legal advisory. As a member you get free services from our lawyer. We can provide you advices for many kind of sports law related questions. If you haven't received your payments you can contact our legal counselor Mika Palmgren +358 400 526 840.

Player's contract. The official player's contract made by us is used in all the top leagues in Finland. We can provide you consultancy if you have issues with injuries, holiday money or any other problems related to your contract.

Red Button. FPA of Finland is fighting against match fixing in football. All the players of the top leagues of Finland get a mobile application Red Button, that is a tool for players to report anonymously, if they ever hear any rumours or get contacted by a match fixer.

Social sustainability – Players as responsible actors in the society

FPA of Finland is taking action in many different social sustainability projects. We want to offer an opportunity for players to speak out and act responsibly. We are organizing for example a football tournament for reception centers and coordinating the Show Racism the Red Card -campaign in Finland. We are also taking part in many different sustainability campaigns that are aiming to improve social status and equality of footballers.
